

NEWPORT NEWS–
CHRISTOPHER NEWPORT UNIVERSITY (CNU)
January 2 - December 31, 2012
5/6/10/11 Km Walk AT12/Y0833

LOCATION: Mariners' Museum (Visitors' Desk), 100 Museum Drive, Newport News, VA, 23606.

DISTANCE: There will be a 5- or 6- or 10- or 11-kilometer walk (CNU). See course description below.

START AND FINISH TIMES: Wednesday thru Saturday, except Thanksgiving and Christmas, 10 am - 5 pm; Sunday, noon – 5 pm. The museum is open on Mondays that are Federal Holidays: 10 am – 5 pm.

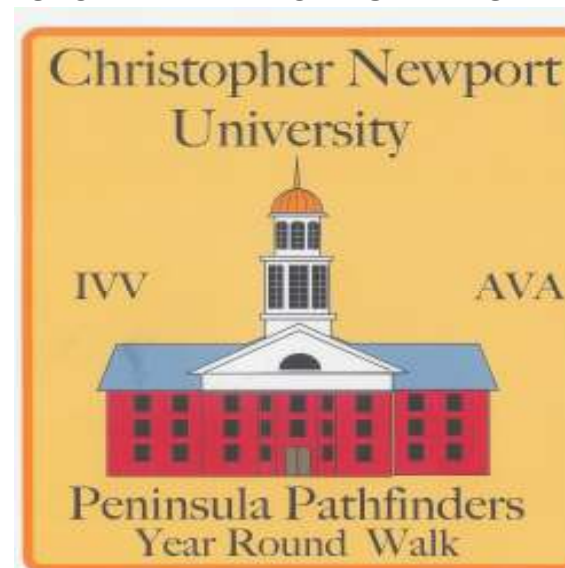

REGISTRATION PROCEDURES: Inquire at the Mariners' Museum Visitors Desk for the Peninsula Pathfinders walk box. Since two walks start from here, insure that you have the walk box for the event you want to walk. Complete the paperwork for the event by following the instructions in the box. Remember that the start point is a business. Please be patient while they wait on their customers.

COURSE DESCRIPTION: Walk trail rating A1. The trail is through the Campus of CNU to include Captains Park (where the CNU baseball team plays). The 6- and 11-kilometer trails include a walk past Causey's Grist Mill. All CNU walks feature the I.M. Pei designed Ferguson Center for the Arts. CNU trail is suitable for strollers. Neither trail is suitable for handicapped.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION: Contact Ron or Diane Berard at (757) 890-9220, email: walkingtheusa@gmail.com.

EVENT CLASSIFICATIONS: Walking the USA A-Z ("N" for Newport News), Grist Mills, Honoring Law Enforcement and Baseball Parks. For those walking the Virginia Cities program: Newport News.

CHRISTOPHER NEWPORT UNIVERSITY AWARD

3 in by 4 in patch showing one of CNU Buildings
Patch is $7.00

DIRECTIONS

NEWPORT NEWS - CNU: From Interstate 64 (East or West), take Exit 258A, J. Clyde Morris Blvd, US Route 17 South. Drive about 2.5 miles to the end of J. Clyde Morris Blvd at Warwick Blvd (the multi-lane highway). Continue straight across Warwick Boulevard to Avenue of the Arts. Go 0.1 miles and turn left at a blue Mariners' Museum sign. Continue straight to enter the Museum grounds. Park in the parking lot near the museum.